Atlantic City Hotels Preparing for Easter Throng

Ceased Making Reservations -Arrivals at Resort.

The hortel site has a Boardwalk frontess of 150 feet and the plot extends for 490 feet along Michigan avenue. The new structure is of steel, hollow tile and brick, is finished with Indianal imestone and trimmed with terra cotta. It follows the Italian Renalssance style and is fireproof throughout. The extension fronts the present frame structure, the porches of which were razed to permit the junction of the two buildings. Eventually the old building with he demolished in units and will be replaced by a massive hotel of which the extension is the nucleus. In the extension will be all the improvements and conveniences that are embodied in a first class modern hotel. Two Boardwalk shops are provided for in the new building. Mr. Weikel expects to open the extension in the early summer, probably before Independence Day.

Heavy Bookings for Easter.
All the beach front hotels and many along the avenues are booking well for home safety partners, Some of the contest of the later patrons, Some of the contest of the safe and refurnished and is admirably improved.

The railroads have advanced their summer excursions one week in anticipation of the large patronage that is expected. The excursions will be provided by all the lines coming to this resort. There will be similar attention to the convenience of the departures on Easter Sunday afternoon. Special provided by all the lines coming to this resort.
